

The customer portal has a recovery time objective of two hours. Payroll has a recovery time objective of four hours. Business owners validate recovery priorities during continuity exercises, which are conducted twice each year.

Production backups run daily and are encrypted before leaving the primary environment. Restore tests are performed every quarter. Crisis contact lists are reviewed monthly, and failed restore tests require a corrective-action owner within three business days.